		Does the state have any caps or thresholds on the application of rates or exemptions based on the value of a transaction or item?	Yes	NDCC 57-39.2-04(12)(c)	N/A	Sales to residents of an adjoining state that does not impose a sales tax are exempt if the sale is for $50 or more and the purchaser takes possession in ND. The exemption is strongly supported by ND retailers and does not impact remote sellers. The business community did not object to this threshold during discussions during the original SST certification process.
		2. Does the state have any caps that are based on application of rates unless the application of rates are administered in a manner that places no additional burden on retailer?	No
		B. Do local jurisdictions within the state that levy sales or use tax have caps or thresholds on application of rates or exemptions that are based on value of transaction or item?	Yes		N/A	Some local jurisdictions place a cap on the amount of tax that may be imposed on a transaction.  Retailers may voluntarily apply the cap but are not required to do so.
